Description:

Sexual violence on college campuses is far too common a problem. The purpose of this webinar is to raise awareness about the issue and to discuss effective strategies for violence prevention and victim support. This webinar is intended to provide guidance for registered nurses, nurse practitioners, physicians' assistants, medical doctors, and other clinicians who work with young adults.

Learning Objectives:

- 1) Discuss the prevalence of sexual violence on campuses and identify barriers to services
- 2) Discuss the role of alcohol in campus sexual assault
- 3) Discuss how to engage healthcare providers in effective responses to sexual assault
- 4) Discuss comprehensive approaches to sexual violence prevention

Featured Speakers:

- Antonia Abbey, PhD, MA Professor & Area Chair of Cognitive, Developmental and Social Psychology, Wayne State University
- Tricia Bent-Goodley, PhD, MSW, LICSW Professor & Director, Howard University School of Social Work
