National Conference on Health and Domestic Violence
April 28-30, 2020  ★ Chicago, IL  ★ nchdv.org

Register today!

Highlighting the latest research, practice, policy, and advocacy that promotes prevention and the health, healing, and wellness of communities and survivors of domestic/sexual violence, human trafficking, and child abuse.
Register at nchdv.org! EARLY BIRD RATES UNTIL JAN. 31

Who should attend? survivor advocates, health care and public health providers, survivors, health policy leaders, community leaders, social workers, birth workers, researchers, evaluators, social workers, students, dentists, home visitors, and more. CME/CEU available!

Join more than 1,100 attendees for 3-days of activities:

April 28th | 16 intensive (3.5 hour) Pre-Conference Institutes:
- Domestic Violence and Substance Use Coercion
- Sexual Abuse Pipeline to Maternal Mortality
- Health Advocacy for Advocates
- Alternatives to Criminal Justice Responses to Violence
- Innovative Community Health Center Responses to DV
- Supporting American Indian/Alaska Native Survivors
- Trauma-Informed Care, and much more!

April 29-30th | Two-day Conference:
- 500+ speakers, 200+ presentations, 250+ posters
- plenary and keynote sessions
- an evening reception, exhibit hall, networking opportunities, and artist performances