

Building Collaborative Responses to Trafficked Victims of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

A Training Institute

November 14-15, 2019, Thursday & Friday, 8:30am-5:00pm
Portland, OR

Description: This training will focus on improving collaborative responses for adult/youth domestic violence and sexual assault victims who have also experienced human trafficking. The 2-day training will provide multidisciplinary participating teams with effective skill-building to identify, assist and promote safety for trafficked survivors; promote peer exchange to share innovation and help problem solve; and improve team coordination and recruitment of new partners to enhance services that increase survivors' access to social services, health care, legal, and criminal resources that promote their healing and justice.

Please apply in multidisciplinary teams by September 6, 2019

Pending OVW approval, we are accepting applications.

For questions, including on your team configuration, please contact:

Mónica Arenas at marenas@futureswithoutviolence.org, Tel: 415-678-5519.

Topics to be covered

As a result of this training participants will be better able to:

- Strengthen multi-disciplinary collaborative strategies in responding to youth and adult trafficked survivors with domestic violence and sexual assault experiences.
- Define and clarify professional and organizational roles and responsibilities in responding to trafficked survivors.
- Describe the intersections of human trafficking and domestic and sexual violence.
- Provide a victim-centered, trauma-informed response to trafficked survivors.
- Collaborate with healthcare providers, community health centers and other health systems to support the short- and long-term health needs of survivors.
- Create an action plan to develop and implement a collaborative response to address human trafficking in your community.

Who may attend?

- *OVW grantees may apply in multidisciplinary teams comprised of different organizations (teams of 3-4 people) who may include, but not limited to: domestic violence/sexual assault program staff, attorneys/legal experts, law enforcement, human trafficking taskforce members, civil law enforcement agencies, and healthcare staff. At least one member of each team must be an OVW grantee.

- OVW grantees and their OVW grantee partners can participate and use their OVW travel funds to send grant-funded staff and partners to this training, with prior approval from their OVW Program Manager.

How to apply:

- Teams interested in participating must submit an application. Please see attached application form. If you are using OVW funds to participate, please obtain approval from your OVW program specialist. Due to space limitations of up to 15 multidisciplinary teams, your application is not confirmed until you receive an acceptance letter from FUTURES' staff. Click here to view the online application.
