Presented by:

*U. S. Department of Justice Office on Violence Against Women
In partnership with Futures Without Violence*

This 2.5 day training will provide participants with effective skills on how to identify and assist domestic violence and sexual assault victims who may also be human trafficking victims/survivors. This training will focus on improving collaborative responses to adult/youth foreign-born trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Areas to be covered:

As a result of this training participants will be better able to:

- Initiate multi-disciplinary collaborative strategies in responding to trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Define and clarify individual and organizational roles and responsibilities in responding to trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Identify and respond to adult/youth foreign-born trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Enhance knowledge on the legal options, assistance and benefits that are available for trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Apply victim-centered strategies to assist trafficked domestic violence and sexual assault victims/survivors.
- Develop culturally competent and linguistically accessible approaches for effective case management to assist trafficked victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Create an action plan to develop and implement a collaborative response to addressing human trafficking in your community.

Who may attend?

- *OVW grantees are highly encouraged to apply in multidisciplinary teams composed of organizations in their communities ("teams" of 3-4 individuals) which may include, but are not limited to: domestic violence/sexual assault program staff, attorneys, law enforcement, human trafficking task force members, immigration legal service providers, labor/worker rights organizations, civil law enforcement agencies, immigrant rights and refugee resettlement organizations, and health care providers. Possible team configurations may include members from a DV/SA program, law enforcement, immigration attorney, or community based organization. One member of each team must be an OVW grantee.
- OVW grantees and their OVW grantee partners can participate and use their OVW travel funds to send grant-funded staff and partners to this training, with prior approval from their OVW Program Manager.

How to apply:

- Teams interested in participating must submit an application. Please see attached application form. If you are using OVW funds to participate, please obtain approval from your OVW program specialist. Due to space limitations, your application is not confirmed until you receive an acceptance letter from FUTURES' staff. Participation is limited to 15 multidisciplinary teams.
