Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Champion for Women and for Justice

We mourn the death of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, a champion for women and justice, whose commitment to equality inspires the work we have done at FUTURES for nearly forty years. Justice Ginsburg was fearless and unrelenting in her pursuit of equal rights for women, and her life’s work has given millions of women opportunities to work, earn and lead, without discrimination.

Justice Ginsburg was a pioneer in the law and in American life, leading with dignity, decency and a well-tuned sense of humor. She embodied the values we at FUTURES strive to advance every day.

Her death is a tragic loss for this country, and for people everywhere who share her commitment to the equality of women.

About FUTURES

Futures Without Violence is a national health and social justice nonprofit that develops groundbreaking programs, policies, and campaigns to empower individuals and organizations working to end violence against women and children. Striving to reach new audiences and transform social norms, we train professionals such as doctors, nurses, judges, educators and athletic coaches on improving responses to violence and trauma. We also work with advocates, policymakers, and others to build sustainable community leadership and educate people everywhere about the importance of respect and healthy relationships.
